Father Chuck's Corner

Greetings and God's blessings be yours on the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time! The main purpose of this Sunday's readings is to simply show that death leads to life. Jeremiah "died" and rose. Jesus died and rose. We can die and rise, but we do not do this alone. In the first reading from Jeremiah, the princes had Jeremiah lowered into a muddy cistern to die. But King Zedekiah, having second thoughts ordered him to be rescued. "Then the king ordered Ebed-melech the Cushite to take three men along with him and draw the prophet Jeremiah out of the cistern before he should die." Then in the second reading from Hebrews, everyone is encouraged by knowing that Jesus is the leader who brings faith to perfection and also won victory despite his great suffering. "Consider how he endured such opposition from sinners, in order that you may not grow weary and lose heart." And finally, the overall context for today's gospel from Luke is the emphasis on being prepared for the end times. The opening lines are rather shocking. We are not used to Jesus speaking this way and it is a far cry from his words of healing, mercy and forgiveness. A refining fire than transposes into a baptism which seems to be a reference to his death. His entire journey will be marked by suffering and rejection until that moment when its goal is finally achieved. And then even more shocking statements are made by Jesus which are crystal clear. Remember he says: "Do you think that I have come to establish peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division."

After Jesus suffered, died, and was buried, the tomb could not hold him. He rose again on the third day. As Ebed-Melech and friends raised Jeremiah from the cistern, the Father raised Jesus from the dead so that he could become what St. Paul calls "a life-giving spirit." The Holy Spirit, coming from the Father and the Son sets the earth on fire-as Jesus had predicted. Jesus' journey to resurrection was far from easy. He described it as a baptism involving betrayal and abandonment, suffering and death. Jesus remains controversial, even after his resurrection, dividing families, friends, and enemies. Even so, he declared that he was eager to undergo this baptism, bringing the fire to the world. The Letter to the Hebrews says that, "For the sake of the joy that lay before him, he endured the Cross, despising its shame."

We came to life in Baptism and are called to persevere in running the race that lies before us. It will not always be easy. And we may even meet the kind of betrayals that Jeremiah and Jesus met. We spend our life undergoing "little baptisms" emerging from the "cisterns" that entrap us. Family, country, work, school, and parish can all hem us in and infect us with prejudices, fears, distractions and delusions. And so, we are sometimes faced with the dilemma of taking our faith seriously when doing so is met with derision and rejection. Then we should remember that we do not face this challenge alone. The spirit of Jesus is our Advocate to bring us to resurrection and life. Where sin abounds, grace abounds all the more. We have the sacraments and scripture plus the community of the Church-with sinners and saints! So, let us unite ourselves with this Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in hopes of experiencing a new birth. We hope to be prepared for the good things no eye has seen and to obtain God's promises, which surpass every human desire.

This past week the New York State Child Victims Act went into effect. Bishop John Barres wrote us an extensive letter outlining the possible scope of how this law may affect the Catholic Church in New York State. To learn more about our diocesan efforts at this time you may go to www.drvcchildvictimsact.com and to view the video that is being shown on the Catholic Faith Network, featuring Bishop Barres, go to <https://youtu.be/aU8Ps8fRFIU>. May we continue to pray for all victims and their families, that justice and mercy may meet during this most challenging time.

Please remember to take home a copy of the bulletin when you leave Mass today. It contains many items of interest and invitation with something for everyone. Of special note is news and needs from Parish Social Ministry, an ad encouraging everyone to sign up for FORMED, an order form for the new round of Parish Picks that starts this month, the upcoming Divine Mercy Prayer Vigil on Friday, August 23rd, the date for the opening of the 2020 Mass Book, and much more. To keep informed, keep a copy of the bulletin at home each week for quick and easy reference.

Have a great week. Smile, share and stay faithful! Plus remember: Don't be mean, be meaningful. God bless always.

Religious Education—Faith Formation

Evelyn Contaldi, Director

Just a quick update on personnel changes in the Religious Education office. Mrs. Theresa Leonetti worked in the Religious Education office for over 30 years. She was a part-time secretary who also taught Religion for many years. Mrs. Leonetti made the decision that it was time for her to retire. Although we are sad to see her go, we congratulate her on her retirement and want to sincerely thank her for her so many years of dedication to our program. Not only did the children of the parish benefit from her commitment and devotion but our office will miss her.

It is with great enthusiasm that we welcome Mrs. Nancy Mott to our staff. Mrs. Mott will take over from where Mrs. Leonetti left off. Nancy has been an catechist for our program for many years and we are thrilled that she is joining our office.

PLEASE REGISTER YOUR CHILD(REN) FOR THE 2019/2020 RELIGIOUS EDUCATION SCHOOLYEAR ASAP. FORMS CAN BE DOWNLOADED FROM THE PARISH WEBSITE (WWW.SAINTRAYMONDS.ORG) OR CALL THE RELIGIOUS EDUCATION OFFICE AND THEY WILL BE E-MAILED TO YOU.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PRAYER PROGRAM
TWO MONTH OLD DEVELOPING BABY

Your spiritually adopted baby is making progress developing all of his or her internal & external organs. At just 35 days after conception, the baby has all his or her fingers. Brain waves can be detected at 40 days & the brain is controlling 40 sets of muscles as well as the organs. His or her mother can hear her baby's heartbeat now on an ultrasonic stethoscope. The jaw forms including teeth buds in the gums. And it has been reported that as early as two months the baby can suck his or her thumb! The eyelids seal during this time to protect the baby's light-sensitive eyes that will re-open in the seventh month. The stomach produces digestive juices & the kidneys have begun to function. This tiny human being responds to touch. By eight weeks, the developing baby is now referred to as the "fetus", a Latin word meaning young one" or "offspring". From this moment onward, your spiritually adopted baby grows & refines his or her body. But everything the baby needs to survive once he or she is born is already present by the end of the eighth week. Please continue to pray for your little one as most surgical abortions are committed between the 8th & 12th week of the unborn baby's life. You may view an accurate picture of the unborn baby at this time of his or her growth on the bulletin boards in all the Church's entrances. Please stop and view these pictures so that when anyone talks about abortion as a "right to choose", you will have a picture in your mind of whose life is being chosen to be "terminated". You will see the rhetoric of "a blob of tissue" or a "clump of cells" does not accurately describe these little ones in the womb. Please join us at our next meeting: Monday, August 19th, 1:00 - 2:30 pm., located in the rectory's lower level. All are invited and needed to be a voice for the voiceless babies in the womb.

Help the Poor in the Appalachia Mountains

Deep in the Appalachian Mountains, an area hard hit by the loss of coal jobs, many are forced to leave while the elderly are forced to face the struggle. St. Stephen Church, distributes food, clothes, household items, cleaning materials and sanitary items to as many families as possible. We assist with heating and utility bills for those unable to pay them. Poverty in the area is increasing and our funds are all but exhausted. This is why we are asking for your generous help to keep this outreach program going. Any donation large or small will be a blessing and greatly appreciated.
