Father Chuck's Corner

Greetings and God's blessings be yours on the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time! On this mid-summer Sunday, we are shown through God's word and the Eucharist that the mission of Jesus was not his alone to accomplish. In the first reading from the Prophet, Amos, we see how far the people have strayed from God and even the preaching of truth by Amos will not let the people be spared God's judgment. Yet still he tries to do what God has told him. "The Lord took me from following the flock and said to me. 'God, prophesy to my people Israel.'" Then in the second reading from Paul's Letter to the Ephesians, he exults in how the people who believe have been blessed by God and they are sealed with the Holy Spirit to guide them along the path that leads to eternal life. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him." And finally, Mark's gospel shows how Jesus gives his disciples a quick course in how to prepare for and carry out their ministry. When they followed Jesus' instructions the following happened. "The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them."

Often, we hear about visions that others have experienced. How about you? Have you ever had a vision? One vision all Christians should have is a call to carry on the ministry of Jesus. That is the call or vision the Holy Spirit conferred upon us when we were baptized and confirmed. Sometimes, like the Israelites in the days of Amos, we can be drawn to convenience over commitment. The people then were drawn to the convenience of the local temple and distracted from the proper one in Jerusalem. Even though we are currently dispensed from the obligation of attending Sunday Mass, will the arrangement of this past year and a half lead us astray when the obligation is restored on August 15th, the Feast of the Assumption; or will that be a time bringing us to a closer presence? Our global pandemic has brought many challenges. Hopefully, our faith has also increased.

We believe that God is always with us, through thick and thin. No matter our path in life, we are called to continue in the way of Jesus. No matter whether single or married, no matter our occupation or station in life, the invitation is open to us. You and I are extensions of Jesus' ministry. Hearing the Gospel each Sunday is not enough. Active participation at Mass is good but also not enough. We are invited each week to carry the message with us and make it a part of our daily lives. Only then is the Gospel truly alive. The doors of our church are a most sacred part of the church. Leaving without living the gospel is an empty participation. Living out the Gospel has always taken courage. Our rich history is full of the stories of those who gave their lives for Jesus, and those who dedicated the rest of their lives in service of it. Listen for the whispered quiet invitation of the Holy Spirit. The Church lives on in mysterious and beautiful ways. It is never too late to begin. Just let grace happen. And may the Holy Communion we share with one another whether in person or spiritually give us the strength and courage to carry on our mission as disciples of Jesus.

Please remember to take home a copy of the bulletin when you leave Mass today. It contains many items of interest and invitation with something for everyone. Of special note is news and needs from Parish Social Ministry, info from Religious Education, an invitation to the Our Lady of Fatima Prayer Vigil on Monday, July 12, the Litany of St. Joseph and other prayers, an order form for the next round of Parish Picks which will begin in August, registration info for CYO Swimming, an invitation to join FORMED (your Catholic faith on demand) and much more. To keep informed, keep a copy of the bulletin at home each week for quick and easy reference.

Have a great week. Smile, share, follow your vision and remember: Money will buy you a pretty good dog, but it won't buy you the wag of his tail. God bless always.

-Father Chuck.

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,

we bless you,

we adore you,

we glorify you,

we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, Heavenly King,

O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,

Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us;

You take away the sin of the world,

receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One;

you alone are the Lord.

You alone are the Most High,

Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,

in the glory of God, the Father.

Amen

The Our Father

Our Father,

Who art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come.

Thy Will be done,

on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day

our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,

the Father almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,

of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,

born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,

begotten, not made, consubstantial

with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our Salvation he came down from heaven,

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under

Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day

in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand

READINGS FOR TODAY'S MASS

SUNDAY, JULY 11, 2021- 15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING

Am 7:12-15

Amaziah, priest of Bethel, said to Amos, "Off with you, visionary, flee to the land of Judah! There earn your bread by prophesying, but never again prophesy in Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal temple." Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 85:9-10, 11-12, 13-14

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims; the LORD—for he proclaims peace. Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits; our land shall yield its increase. Justice shall walk before him, and prepare the way of his steps.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

SECOND READING

Eph 1:3-14 or 1:3-10

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise of the glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved. In him we have redemption by his blood, the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of his grace that he lavished upon us. In all wisdom and insight, he has made known to us the mystery of his will in accord with his favor that he set forth in him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth. In him we were also chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will, so that we might exist for the praise of his glory, we who first hoped in Christ. In him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised holy Spirit, which is the first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as God's possession, to the praise of his glory.

ALLELUIA

Cf. Eph 1:17-18

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

Mk 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Founded in 1833, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is a worldwide organization of lay Catholics, following Christ's call to serve the poor, the suffering, and the deprived. Our founding activity, still practiced today, is the Home Visit. Through these visits, Vincentian members establish personal relationships with our neighbors in need, not only providing material assistance such as rent, utilities, food, or clothing, but also offering friendship, understanding, and prayer.

St. Raymond Parish

has had an active chapter (known as a "conference") of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul for decades and invites all who wish to help neighbors in need. Please email svdpsrtray@gmail.com for information on ways that you can participate.

The Rose for Life Program

The Rose for Life program began here at St. Raymond on Mother's Day, May 12, 1985. A rose is placed on the Offertory Table at the 5:00pm Mass and is presented to the priest at the Offertory. The rose symbolizes the life of a preborn baby who dies from abortion. It remains at the tabernacle for the coming week.

The main purpose of the rose is to remind each one of us to pray for the babies who are in danger of abortion. Prayer is one of the most important ways to stop abortion. The rose also serves a special remembrance of the life of our loved ones, in whose name the rose is dedicated each week.

For dedications, please call Mary Healy at 887-4062.
