Father Chuck's Corner

Greetings and God's blessings be yours on the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time! The focus of today's readings is to help us understand the many ways that each of us can share the Good News of Jesus and point the way for others to the kingdom of heaven. In the first reading from Wisdom, the power of God is shown through acts of mercy, kindness, and patience. Knowing the weakness of humanity God chose to judge with clemency rather than with punishment. "But though you are master of might, you judge with clemency, and with much lenience you govern us; for power, whenever you will, attends you." Then in the second reading from Romans, Paul understands the limitations of the human condition especially when it comes to prayer. He espouses the intercession of the Holy Spirit to help us. "And the one who searches hearts knows what the intention of the Spirit is, because he intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will." And finally, Matthew's gospel continues Jesus teaching through parables. He uses the imagery of weeds and wheat, then one of the mustard seed and yeast. The weeds and wheat parable has Jesus affirming that the kingdom of heaven contains both saints and sinners and God alone will make the final determination of judgement. And the mustard seed and yeast examples are meant to offer insight into the growth process of the kingdom of heaven. It is only partially fulfilled in the here and now but there is much more to come. Only through faith can one understand the deeper meanings of these parables. It is important for the listeners to take heed of what Jesus says. "I will open my mouth in parables, I will announce what has lain hidden from the foundation of the world."

We live in a world that includes the good and the bad, the easy and the difficult, the sinners and the saints. Our call is to remain true to who we are as daughters and sons of God and signs of Jesus to the world. How we bear the Good News of Jesus to others is what counts. A cup of coffee, a visit to a nursing home, a round of golf, a playdate, shopping, a neighborhood picnic—all these are opportunities to share the Good News of the kingdom of heaven. Every day we can share this news through acts of thoughtfulness with the gift of time in many ways and places. God has given each of us, from the youngest to the oldest, gifts and talents to use in sharing the Good News. I have witnessed countless times the gifts and talents of parishioners that have been incredible examples of sharing the Good News. Jesus had many followers, and he knew them.

He also knew what symbols and stories would speak to their experiences and what would be hard for them to comprehend. He knows that about you and me too. In the first reading today, God is spoken of as someone who is just, lenient, and merciful. It describes a God who gives hope to his children. If we are to be the followers of Jesus, we too should be extending these gifts to others. Leniency instead of revenge? Justice instead of injustice? Hope instead of gloom? When we do this, that is how we point the way to heaven. Jesus gave us the gift of his Body and Blood that we might know the fullness of God's mercy and love, preparing us to one day share in the great banquet in the kingdom of heaven.

I hope everyone is staying safe and doing the best you can in dealing with the coronavirus. I know that everything is difficult for all of us and we are trying to do as well as we can. Mass attendance is slightly better as the weeks go on. It is extremely good to be able to pray with those who can come. The restrictions are tedious but at least we are able to worship as our parish community. And if you cannot come because of age or vulnerable health conditions know we still all pray together. Please continue to pray with the Mass on tv or online and make the Spiritual Communion as you pray. Let us also continue to pray for all who suffer from the virus at this time. May they be healed and restored to good health. And let us always pray for those in the medical field who care for the sick and risk their lives every day. May they also be kept safe and given the necessary strength to meet the demands of each day.

Please take home a copy of the bulletin when you leave Mass or read it online. There is news and needs from Parish Social Ministry and info from Religious Education plus an order form for the new round of Parish Picks that begins in August. Your help with this fund raiser is greatly appreciated. And thanks for your continued generosity during these difficult months. Without your financial support we would never make it. Have a great week. Smile, stay well and if given the chance, help someone in need. Plus remember: If your arms can't reach someone, hug them with your prayers. God bless always.

-Father Chuck

Religious Education- Faith Formation

Evelyn Contaldi, Director

Let us continue to pray in solidarity for our brothers and sisters here and around the world that are sick. Let us pray for those who have lost loved ones to this virus. May God console them and grant them peace. We pray also for doctors, nurses, and caregivers, for public health officials and all civic leaders. May God grant them courage and wisdom as they seek to respond to this emergency with compassion and in service to the common good.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION REGISTRATION 2020/2021

Registration forms for the 2020/2021 Religious Education school year are on hold temporarily. As more information becomes available to us, we will proceed accordingly.

ATTENTION 2ND GRADE PARISH PARENTS

The new dates for First Holy Communion will be:

Saturday, September 12th, 2020 @ 12Noon Mass for Groups 1 & 2

Saturday, September 19th, 2020* @ 12Noon Mass for Groups 3 & 4

*As of today, we have checked the Lynbrook and East Rockaway school calendars for 2020/2021 and the schools are open on Friday September 18th, 2020 (Rosh Hashanah).

If for some reason you are unable to attend your assigned date, please let us know ASAP and you can surely participate in the other date. We will continue to keep you advised of additional instructions, etc as we go along over these next months.

Assignments were forwarded home to each grade via e-mail. Families are kindly asked to join FORMED which can be found on the parish website. Instructions on how to register for FORMED were included in the e-mail as well. The short videos that have been assigned to each grade are found in this platform. In order to complete the 2019/2020 Religious Education school year, the students and their parents are asked to view the video together and to write a short paragraph about the video. Each video assignment should be done on three separate sheets of paper. Please have the child write his/her name on the top of each sheet, their grade and the name of the video that they watched and write or type their thoughts about the video. Please staple the three pages together so that assignments can be collected and attach them to your child's 2020/2021 Religious Education Registration form.

St Mary Magdalene

Except for the Mother of Our Lord, few women are more honored in the Bible than St Mary Magdalene. Referred to as the 'Apostle to the Apostles', she is the woman from whom Our Lord drove out seven demons. She remained with the Lord during his last agony on the cross and, according to St Mark and St John, was the first to see Him after the Resurrection.

St. James the Apostle

O glorious Apostle, Saint James, who by reason of thy fervent and generous heart was chosen by Jesus to be witness of His glory on Mount Tabor, and of His agony in Gethsemane; thou, whose very name is a symbol of warfare and victory; obtain for us strength and consolation in the unending warfare of this life, that, having constantly and generously followed Jesus, we may be victors in the strife and deserve to receive the victor's crown in heaven. Amen.

St. Raymond Human Life Committee

"Before I formed you in your mother's womb
I knew you; before you were born I dedicated you...." (Jeremiah 1:5)

And so, through the parents and God's grace, a new human being's life has begun among us. This new little one is unique, a never to be repeated creation of the parents and God. This little one is a gift, not only to his or her parents, but to all of us. A gift to be treasured, cared for, loved, enjoyed - protected! At the wondrous moment of conception, of which God is the only One aware, the complex blueprint for every detail of his or her human development is contained - sex, hair and eye color, height, skin tone, etc. This takes place even before this new life has reached and implanted in the uterus of his or her mother. During this first month, the foundations of the brain, spinal cord & nervous system are established. The heart begins to beat in a regular fashion & is pumping increased quantities of blood through the baby's own circulatory system. The backbone, the rest of the skeleton & muscles are forming and the arms, legs, eyes & ears begin to show. The placenta forms a unique barrier that keeps the mother's blood separate, but allows food & oxygen to pass to the baby. While all these awe-inspiring events are taking place, more than likely, the baby's mother and father are not even aware of the reality of their child's presence. Even so, their child is here! Another member of our human family has just joined us in our journey through life! Please keep your little one, his or her parents and those close to the parents in your daily prayers for the next nine months. If a child is conceived under not so ideal situations, great pressure may be exerted on the new mother to end her child's life through abortion.

The background of the page features a faint, artistic representation of the Virgin of Guadalupe. She is depicted with her characteristic blue mantle adorned with white stars, and a golden sunburst radiating from behind her head. The image is centered and serves as a backdrop for the text.

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe,

Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.

We fly to you today as your beloved children.

We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother,
and gain for our nation and world,
and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted,
we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful,
wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.

Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence,
knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother,
health of the sick and cause of our joy.

Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.
Amen.

PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament, I love You above all things and I desire to receive You Into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You have already come, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen
